TRIAL,
The only full and impartial report of this interesting Trial is this morning issued in pamphlet form. It was reported exclusively for the Publishers by the able Reporter of The Police Gezette, (who needs no certificates to sustain his reputation for correctness and impartiality,) and in ad-dition to the testimony, contains the Scenes in Court, descriptions of the Witnesses, all the letters and documents admitted or rejected, and everything of interest that took place. The report is admitted to be the only correct one by the Court and Coursel en both sides, and may, therefore, be safely taken as the most reliable gu de extent through the mass of testimony given in this ireportant case. This accurate edition contains excellent Portraits of Mr. and Mrs. FORREST, a Report f the opening and the summing up of Counsel, the Judge's Charge, Verdict of the Jury, &c , &c ; containing 700,600 ems of printed matter, equal to an ordinary ctave periodical volume of 300 pages.
